PERSONAL CONFIDENTIALITY INFORMATION

As a client of Great Oaks Counseling Center, it is your right to have the content of your group sessions held in confidence with these exceptions, in which we are mandated to report:

1. If you sign a release form for us to divulge any or all information as outlined in said form
2. If you intend to physically hurt yourself or another person (including suicidal or homicidal intentions)
3. In the case of child, elder or handicapped individuals abuse

In some cases, the Montana courts have held that if an individual intends to take harmful or dangerous action against another individual, it is the counselor's duty to warn the person and/or the family of the person who is likely to suffer the results of harmful behavior.

Every effort will be made to resolve these issues before such a violation of confidentiality takes place. As well, every effort will be made to prevent an attempted suicide or dangerous action against another person.

☐ I have read and agree to the above policy and procedure statement.
